

You are invited to join the Friends of the Calabasas Library

It is up to us, the community, to support our library. As a Friend of the Calabasas Library you help to accomplish the following:

- Participate in the growth and development of our facility
- Promote public understanding and appreciation of our Library
- Provide special Library programs to enrich the community
- Fund the purchase of books, videos, periodicals, software and materials not covered by the City budget.
- Encourage contributions, memorial and commemorative gifts

Ongoing projects of the Friends of the Calabasas Library include funding the children's summer reading program, sponsoring the book club, and funding the popular rental book program.
